Part-time Elementary Learning Support Specialist

OVERVIEW

Emerson School is seeking a part-time Elementary Learning Support Specialist. This specialist will focus on grades K-2, with extension into other elementary grades as needed. We are searching for a talented, team-oriented candidate to design, implement, and coordinate support services for Emerson students with learning differences. This individual will work closely with two peer Learning Support Specialists, the School Counselor, and the administrative team. Duties include (but are not limited to) small group intervention, individual remediation, reviewing outside testing, coordinating with team members for student educational plans, monitoring and assessing student progress, assisting teachers to differentiate curriculum, facilitating the use of assistive technology, referring students to out-of-school resources, advocating for students, and establishing and maintaining frequent communication with parents. A bachelor's degree is required, with preference given to those with backgrounds in special/exceptional education, specific learning differences, and/or early literacy skill building. This position is eligible for employee benefits.

ABOUT EMERSON SCHOOL
