ABOUT SUMMER AT EMERSON

Summer at Emerson is an eight-week summer camp program that gives children opportunities to grow, explore, discover, create, imagine, play, and have fun. It is open to all K-8 students, regardless of school attended. Morning and afternoon camps are available, each a week long, and families can enroll their children in as many educational and fun camps of their choosing.

ABOUT EMERSON SCHOOL

Emerson School is an independent K-8 school for gifted and for academically talented students located in Ann Arbor, Michigan. For more than 40 years, families from across Southeast Michigan have enrolled their bright students in Emerson because of its ability to challenge, nurture, stimulate, and engage the whole child.

More than 370 students are typically enrolled each year, and a passionate faculty and staff of more than 75 teach them to love learning. Classrooms are safe places where cognitive and creative risk-taking are encouraged; where students learn by doing, by being listened to, by participating, and by working together. Notable facts include:

- Class size: 12 to 20
- Student to faculty ratio: 8 to 1
- Diversity: 38% of students self-identify as students of color
