

Dear Emerson Families:

This year Emerson School has partnered with What's Cooking! LLC to provide school lunches for your children. What's Cooking! is located in our community, operates out of their own licensed commercial kitchen and has been in business for 10 years. Founded by Stacy Williams, What's Cooking! provides fresh, healthy and delicious meals, delivered to your home, office or school. Stacy and her staff select only the freshest ingredients and prepare all of your meals as if they were cooking for their own family. We are proud to offer What's Cooking! Lunches to Emerson students for the 2015-2016 school year.
