

Y5-2nd grade Learning Support Specialist

OVERVIEW

Emerson School is seeking a full-time Lower School Learning Support Specialist (focusing on Young 5s through 2nd grade) for the 2022-23 school year. We are searching for a talented, team-oriented candidate to design, implement, and coordinate support services for Emerson students with learning differences. This individual will work closely with two peer Learning Support Specialists, homeroom teachers, the School Counselors, and the administrative team. Duties include (but are not limited to) small group intervention, individual remediation, reviewing outside testing, coordinating with team members for student educational plans, monitoring and assessing student progress, assisting teachers to differentiate curriculum, facilitating the use of assistive technology, referring students to out-of-school resources, advocating for students, and establishing and maintaining frequent communication with parents. A bachelor's degree is required, and prior teaching experience is preferred.

HOW TO APPLY

Interested candidates should send a cover letter and résumé to Andy Zimmer, Assistant Head of School (azimmer@emerson-school.org). More information about Emerson is available at www.emerson-school.org.
